

CRITTENDEN RECORD

Vol. 34

Marion, Crittenden County, Ky., August

TWO NEW STEEL BRIDGES

Contracts Awarded Tuesday.

The Committee on Free Betty Ford for Crittenden Co.—Esq. T. A. Yandell, Esq. A. S. Hard, and Judge J. W. Blue Jr., Judge T. P. Gray for Lyon Co., met in the County Judge office Tuesday and awarded the contract to the Champion Bridge Co., of Wilmington Ohio at $1654.00 The Committee on Porters Mills, Esq. L. J. Hodges, Co Att'y John A. Moore and Judge Blue met at the same time and place and awarded the contract to the Vincennes Bridge Co., of Vincennes Ind., at $1448.00

The following firms were asked to bid—Champion Co., Wilmington, Ohio., Oregon Bridge Co., Covington Ky., Vincennes Bridge Co., Vincennes Ind., Penn Bridge Co., Beaver Falls Pa., Missouri Iron and Bridge Company St Louis Mo., York Bridge Co., Clarksville, W. Va., Roanoke Bridge Co., Cincinnati O. Empire Bridge Co., Lexington Ky., Nashville Bridge Co., Nashville, Tenn., The Joliet Bridge Co., Memphis, Tenn., Attica Bridge Co., Louisville Ky., Brackett Bridge Co., Cincinnati Ohio

The following firms did bid and the lowest bid was accepted in each case. Free Betty Ford Bridge bidders: Champion Bridge Co., $1654.00 Attica Bridge Co. $1820.00 Vincennes Bridge Co. $1687.00 Awarded to Champion Bridge Co.,

Porters Mill Bridge bidders—Attica Bridge Co. $1632.00 Champion Bridge Co. $1495.00 Vincennes Bridge Co. $1448.00 Awarded to Vincennes Bridge Co.

The people of those sections which are to have these new bridges are to be congratulated as they have long stood in need of them. The contracts call for the completion of both bridges by Dec. 1st of this year.

Ferguson-Williams Nuptials.

In this city Wednesday, at the beautiful main street home of the brides' sister Mrs. S. Gugen-heim Miss Rebecca Williams of Providence was united in marriage Wednesday morning to Mr. H. K. Ferguson of Nashville Tenn. Rev. D. N. Good performing the ceremony in the presence of only the members of the family. Mrs. Marshall Jenkins played the wedding march on piano accompanied by Miss Madeline Jenkins on the flute. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the 11 o'clock train for Nashville and other southern cities on a bridal tour. The bride is a most charming young woman of christian character and the groom, who is a prominent newspaper man is to be congratulated on winning her for his life partner.

On Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 29th, from 3:30 to 5:30, Misses Lizzie and Ruby James, entertained in honor of Mrs. Charles Evans, of Ardmore, Okla. The guests were asked to bring fancy work, which they did, and the afternoon was very pleasantly spent in the conversation, interspersed with a little work now and then. Delightful refreshments consisting of punch, neapolitan cream and cake were served.

The guests were:—Mesdames Chas. Evans, of Ardmore, Okla.; Mildred Smith, Glenn Smith, of Atlanta, Ga.; T. C. Guess, W. N. Russell, E. J. Hayward, J. W. Blue, F. W. Nunn, J. G. Rochester, G. C. Gray W. J. Deboe, G. P. Roberts, W. N. Rochester, Jas. Henry, R. F. Haynes, W. O. Tucker. Misses Nona Blue, of St. Louis, Mo.; Della Barnes, Kitty Gray, Lilly Cook and Leaffa Wilborn.

Miss Leaffa Wilborn entertained about thirty of her friends on last Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with Mrs. Cole of Mannsville Okla., as the guest of honor. The time was delightfully spent in working out two contests. The first being an observation contest in which Miss Dell Barnes carried off the prize and the second contest of famous women, Miss Ruby James getting the prize by drawing Neapolitan Cream and were served. The list of guests included, Mesdames, Cole, F. W. Nunn, Miles Flanary, W. O. Tucker, T. J. Yandell, J. W. Blue Chas. Evans, W. M. Saunders, Gus Taylor, Levi Cook, Roy Gilbert, T. W. Wilborn, Cavender, Crawford, Misses Nona Blue, Kitty Gray, Ruby James, Della Barnes, Mary Cameron.

Miss Carrie McConnel left Tuesday for Penn. where she will enter the hospital and continue her studies as a trained nurse.

R. M. Pool, the Princeton Banker was here Saturday and Sunday the guest of Alves Stephens and family.

Redford Yates returned Tuesday from Hampton where he assisted in the camp meeting services. He goes to Ripley Tenn., tomorrow for two weeks.

Mrs. I. H. Clement went to Dycusburg Saturday to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Cora Letzinger and Misses Nelle and Rebecca Williams, of Providence, arrived Tuesday to be the guests of their sister, Mrs. Eva Gugenheim, at whose home Miss Rebecca was married Wednesday morning.

Misses Elizabeth Cook, Lucile and Selma Moore visited their aunt, Mrs. M. E. Bacon, at Hopkinsville last week.

Miss Hebie Martin, of Henderson, who was Miss Henrie Easley's guest for several days, returned home Tuesday to resume her duties as a trained nurse at the city hospital.

Dr. F. W. Nunn returned Wednesday morning from a business trip to Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Smith and daughter of Twinfalls, Idaho have returned home after a pleasant visit of several weeks to her sister, Mrs. Thomas H. Cochran.

Mrs. J. F. Price and Miss Price have returned from the van where they were of Mr. and Mrs. J.

Miss Allie M. turned traveler writer Co. has been here visit to his old home es his trip in a few Mr. and Mrs. G. M. have returned from Hill Springs and are at their Bellville street residence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Yandell have returned from their annual camp at "Hill Springs," after two months pleasant sojourn there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Woods are home from a most delightful sojourn at Hill Springs.

Senator P. S. Maxwell returned Tuesday from Ardmore, Okla., where he went to see his folks. He was also in Texas looking after his interests there.

Mrs. Steele of Princeton who is Mrs. Susan Glenss guest is the widow of that well known educator John B. Steele, who taught at Princeton, Eddyville and Dycusburg.

Mrs. Lilly Ramage and Mrs. Perry returned from market Wednesday, where they selected their millinery stock.

Mrs. A. F. Woolf and son, Jesse, and daughters, Ruth and Lena, left Wednesday for Nashville and Monterey, Tenn., to visit her brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. White and her sister, left Wednesday for Fairfield, Ky., being called there on account of the death of Mr. White's niece.

Rev. W. B. Yates returned Tuesday from Illinois, where he has been assisting in a meeting.

Name Withdrawn From

The Contest Per

A friend nominated elene Jenkins, the er as a contest ard Touring away